Course Description

The purpose of this free two-day National Fire Academy course is to provide Fire Service authority figures with knowledge and skills, enabling them to exercise leadership when confronting adaptive challenges presented by increasingly diverse internal and external communities.

The goal of the course is for participants to utilize the diversity of ideas, peoples, and cultures as resources in exercising leadership to address adaptive challenges in their communities.

Target Audience

Fire and emergency service personnel in positions of authority (executive level officers) who have an opportunity to exercise leadership. At a minimum, the students must be assigned to a supervisory level position, such as Company Officer (CO).

Prerequisites

- Recommended: Incident Command System (ICS)-100-level and ICS-200-level training
- Preferred: Q0462 and Q0463 are available through https://www.usfa.fema.gov/training/nfa/courses/self_study.html
